Rick, could you forward to band parents distribution list.

Hello Folks,

This mail is to notify of a new process we are trying out to simplify making Marching Band photos available to everyone for viewing and printing and at the same time allowing everyone to post their photos so they can be shared with the wider audience of CBE Marching band parents. Instead of loading photos directly to the band website, we have created an account on Kodak Easy Share website. This service is free and allows loading of high quality photos, so they can be shared for printing (that's where Kodak makes money). However this is a simple and easy way to print high quality photos that you or other team members may have taken. It also requires little maintenance by the band webmaster and uses no space on our own website. We will publish links to the various albums people create.

To view photos, go to <http://www.cbeband.org> website as always and click on the 'Photo Gallery' button on the left hand side menu. You will see new links appear periodically.

To publish photos, go to <http://www.kodakgallery.com/Welcome.jsp> and follow the following steps:

- 1) Login using the following information:
  - a. Enter Email Address = cbeband.photos@cbeband.org
  - b. Enter Password = Patriots08 (password is case sensitive)
  - c. Click 'Sign In' button
- 2) Click on 'Upload Photos' button or 'Create New Album' square.
- 3) Title your new album (for example "Giants Stadium USSBA Yamaha Cup, Oct 11, 2008" - Photos by The Ingoglia's), then enter a brief description and your own comments to the band.
- 4) Next window allows you to select the photos you want to upload. The assumption is you have already put the photos on your computer or you can directly access the memory card where the photos reside. Click the 'Browse' button.
- 5) This brings up a selection window. Locate the files on your computer. Select one or more photos to drop into the upload window. Click on the first photo, then click the shift key and the last photo you want to upload at the same time. This allows you to select a whole range of photos to upload. Then click the 'Add' button.
- 6) You should see not the photos thumbnails of the photos ready to upload. Click the 'Upload' button. Depending on the number of photos being uploaded and the speed of your connection, this step may take a while.
- 7) Once the upload is complete, send an email to webmaster@cbeband.org with the name of the album you uploaded. That's it you're done. As soon as the webmaster is notified, the link will be added to the website 'Photo Gallery' page. Happy Shooting!! If you have any issues, feel free to reach me via email at webmaster@cbeband.org or call me on my cell number below.
